

Arguments

pro: Denying student loan debtors the benefits of bankruptcy--benefits that all other debtors have access to--is unfair.

con: Discharging student loan debt would only be a temporary bandage for the much larger problem of inflated college costs.

[...] it is unfair to deny student loan debtors the benefits of bankruptcy--benefits that all other debtors have access to. They also argue that student loan debt has a disproportionately negative impact on low-income borrowers [...]. However, [...] it would be a costly and ineffective solution to the problem of student debt. They also argue that it would only be a temporary bandage for the much larger problem of inflated college costs.

[...] One argument in favor of forgiveness is that it is unfair to deny student loan debtors the benefits of bankruptcy--benefits that all other debtors have access to. However, one argument against forgiveness is that it would only be a temporary bandage for the much larger problem of inflated college costs.
